

“BRAZILITY ” is the dazzling new show by Ana Gazzola, a heartfelt homage to the soul of Brazilian music. It features a quintet of bass, drums, piano and guitar, with Ana herself singing and playing the saxophone. Seamlessly blending the classics of bossa nova, the rhythm of samba, and subtle hints of jazz and pop, this show invites audiences on a journey through Brazil’s vibrant musical heritage. Engaging and immersive, “Brazility” not only captivates with its melodies but also enlightens, sharing the stories of Brazilian music, instruments and culture—specially crafted for American audiences seeking both enchantment and discovery.
